

Councillor Bridget Chapman

Bridget has lived in Folkestone Harbour ward for the last ten years. She has had an eclectic career spending ten years working in the music industry (including Factory Records in Manchester), followed by ten years as a secondary school English teacher. For the last ten years she has worked in the charity sector, latterly in refugee resettlement. She loves living in Folkestone and is an all year round sea swimmer. Her interests include community building, local history and walking.