

Councillor Kieran Leigh

In 2023, I was proud to be elected to Folkestone Town Council. This is where I grew up and now live, so I am incredibly passionate about helping local people. On the council, I am a member of the Finance and General Purposes Committee and the Environment and Climate Change Committee. In my professional life, I work in communications and public policy.