

Councillor Liz McShane

I was proud to be elected to Folkestone Town Council in 2023. I sit on the Community Services Committee, where we look at how to enhance and improve the facilities in our local area, and I also sit on the Climate and Environment Committee where we look at how we can enhance and improve our local environment.